

Wild Rose

Sunday May 5, 2019 4:00pm

Wild Rose's Rose-Lynn (Jessie Buckley) has all the trappings of a country star. A single mother and an ex-con with a name that just demands a Tennessee accent, she lives and breathes Country. Enamoured with the "three chords and the truth" found in true country songs, Rose-Lynn dreams of Nashville and stardom in Tom Harper's uplifting tale.

With one white cowboy-booted foot always out the door, Rose-Lynn's struggle for freedom often borders on selfishness, especially with regards to her two young kids (where do they fit in her Grand Ole Opry dreams?). But Buckley utterly sells Rose's sheer hunger, and when we see the way she comes alive onstage, it's hard to begrudge her these dreams.

The always-excellent Sophie Okonedo and Julie Walters give splendid supporting turns as Rose's keen employer-turned-friend and long-suffering mother respectively, but the film, of course, belongs to Buckley.

Roma

Sunday February 10, 2019 - 4:00pm

Acclaimed as a masterpiece, it's the most personal project to date from Academy Award winning director and writer Alfonso Cuarón - ROMA follows Cleo (Yalitza Aparicio), a young domestic worker for a family in the middle-class neighborhood of Roma in Mexico City. Delivering an artful love letter to the women who raised him, Cuarón draws on his own childhood to create a vivid and emotional portrait of domestic strife and social hierarchy amidst political turmoil of the 1970s. This is Cuarón's first project since the groundbreaking Gravity in 2013.
