

The Climb

Sunday May 31, 2020 4:00pm

Cast: Michael Angelo Covino, Kyle Marvin, Gayle Rankin

Directed By: Michael Angelo Covino

Genre: Comedy Rating: R

Runtime: 94 minutes Language: English

The set-up is simple: lifelong friends Mike and Kyle are out for a bike ride through the mountains in the South of France when Mike confesses that he slept with Kyle's fiancé.

In the hands of director Michael Angelo Covino (who also co-wrote and co-stars in the film), this confessional episode expands into an epic multi-year journey that navigates the ins and outs of a co-dependent friendship. Traversing through family holidays, birthdays, ski trips, and, of course, bike rides,

The Climb takes what could be a knucklehead display of toxic masculinity and - through an intelligent, surprising, and self-aware use of slapstick and whip-smart dialogue - steers it through the lives of two people who can't seem to tear themselves apart from each other - and the destructive behaviour they resort to in the process.

Parasite

Sunday, 8 March 2020 4:00 pm

Cast: Kang-ho Song, Sun-kyun Lee, Yeo-jeong Jo

Directed By: Bong Joon Ho

Rating: R Genre: Drama

Language: Korean Runtime: 132 minutes

Bong Joon Ho brings his work home to Korea in this pitch-black modern fairytale. Meet the Park Family: the picture of aspirational wealth. And the Kim Family, rich in street smarts but not much else. Be it chance or fate, these two houses are brought together and the Kims sense a golden opportunity.

Song of Names

Sunday, 5 April 4:00 pm

Stars: Clive Owen, Tim Roth, Jonah Hauer-King

Directed By: François Girard

Rating: PG-13 Genre: Drama, Musical

Runtime: 113 minutes Language: English

As Europe erupts into World War II, 9 year old Martin comes to love his new brother Dovidl, a highly gifted violin prodigy of the same age and recent Polish-Jewish refugee to London. But hours before Dovidl's debut concert performance at the age of 21 he vanishes without a trace, causing shame and ruin for their family.

A lifetime later, a young violinist shows a 56 year old Martin a stylistic flourish that could only have been taught by Dovidl. This triggers Martin's odyssey overseas in search of his lost brother, one that will lead to surprising revelations for both men and for Helen, the woman who stood between them.

White Lie

Sunday, 26 April 2020 4:00 pm

Cast: Kacey Rohl, Amber Anderson, Martin Donovan

Directed By: Yonah Lewis

Rating: PG Runtime: 96 minutes

Genre: Drama Language: English

White Lie, the latest and most straightforward effort from Canadian filmmakers Calvin Thomas and Yonah Lewis (Spice It Up, The Oxbow Cure), is an emotionally devastating look at a young woman who's learning the hard way that the deception of others is a road that could lead to ruin.

University student and dancer Katie (Kacey Rohl) is a major celebrity on the McMaster campus. Katie's story of overcoming cancer has endeared her to classmates who readily open their hearts and wallets to contribute to the young woman's quality of life. The only problem is that - for some reason or another - Katie is making all of this up. She's on the verge of being found out when she's asked to provide medical records to receive a lucrative bursary.

Ordinary Love

Sunday, 10 May 2020 4:00 pm

Cast: Liam Neeson, Lesley Manville, Amit Shah, David Wilmot

Directed By: Lisa Barros D'Sa, Glenn Leyburn

Rating: R Runtime: 91 minutes

Genre: Drama Language: English

Ordinary Love casts Liam Neeson and Lesley Manville as Tom and Joan, a longtime married couple whose relationship is tested after Joan is diagnosed with breast cancer. It's clear immediately that Ordinary Love's greatest asset are the top-notch efforts of its two stars, as Neeson and Manville's completely convincing and impressively lived-in work here ultimately sets the picture apart from its myriad of similarly-themed brethren - with the absolute authenticity of Tom and Joan's coupling certainly remaining a highlight throughout.
