

Lost in Paris

Sunday January 21, 2017 4:00pm

Filed in Dominique Abel and Fiona Gordon's signature whimsical style, LOST IN PARIS stars the filmmakers as a small-town Canadian librarian and a strangely seductive, oddly egotistical vagabond. When Fiona's (Gordon) orderly life is disrupted by a letter of distress from her 88-year-old Aunt Martha (delightfully portrayed by Academy Award (R) - nominee Emmanuelle Riva) who is living in Paris, Fiona hops on the first plane she can and arrives only to discover that Martha has disappeared. In an avalanche of spectacular disasters, she encounters Dom (Abel), the affable, but annoying tramp who just won't leave her alone. Replete with the amazing antics and intricately choreographed slapstick that has come to define Abel and Gordon's work, LOST IN PARIS is a wondrously fun and hectic tale of peculiar people finding love while lost in the City of Lights.

C'est La Vie

Friday January 19, 2017 - 6:30pm

This effervescent comedy from celebrated French directing duo Olivier Nakache and Eric Toledano (The Intouchables) invites us to an opulent château to attend a très extravagant wedding, where the groom is an obnoxious tyrant, the band is at war with the organizers, and the chief planner is looking for the exit. An Altmanesque ensemble work brimming with offbeat, lovable characters, and hilarious set pieces, C'est la vie! is a fiendishly smart, sprawling comedy as only the French do it. You will be laughing all the way down the aisle.

Leads: Jean-Pierre Bacri, Jean-Paul Rouve, Gilles Lellouche

Director: Olivier Nakache, Eric Toledano

Genre: Comedy Runtime: 115 minutes

The Divine Order

Saturday January 20, 2017 - 2:30pm

Political and religious leaders in Switzerland cited the Divine Order as the reason why women still did not have to right to vote as late as 1970. Director Petra Volpe explores this surprising history through the story of Nora, a seemingly unremarkable housewife from a quaint village who must learn to become an unflinching suffragette leader. After organizing the village's first meeting to support women getting the right to vote, her family is mocked, bullied, and shunned. A strong ensemble cast brings the story to its inspirational conclusion when Swiss women finally secure the right to vote in 1971.

Leads: Marie Leuenberger, Max Simonischek, Rachel Braunschweig, Sibylle Brunner, Marta Zoffoli,

Director: Petra Volpe

Genre: Drama Language: Swiss-German – Sub-Titles

Run Time: 96 minutes

Loving Vincent

Saturday January 20, 2017 - 5:00pm

A 2017 biographical animated drama film about the life of painter Vincent van Gogh, and in particular, the circumstances of his death. It is the first fully painted animated feature film. It is written and directed by Dorota Kobiela and Hugh Welchman. The development was funded by the Polish Film Institute, and partially through a Kickstarter campaign.

Each of the film's 65,000 frames is an oil painting on canvas, using the same technique as Van Gogh, created by a team of 115 painters

Leads: Douglas Booth, Jerome Flynn, Robert Gulaczyk, Helen McCrory, Chris O'Dowd,

Directed By: Dorota Kobiela, Hugh Welchman

Genre: Animation, Drama Language: English

Run Time: 1 hr 35m Rating: PG-13

The Other Side of Hope

Sunday January 21, 2017 - 1:30pm

Finland's master of deadpan comedy, Aki Kaurismäki returns with the story of an unlikely friendship between a Syrian asylum seeker and an elderly Finnish restaurant owner. Winner of the Berlin Silver Bear for Best Director, it's a beautiful, timely film from one of the world's leading auteurs. With hilarious sight gags, poker-faced one liners and a toe-tapping rockabilly soundtrack, Kaurismäki's latest balances his unparalleled wit with a pressing critique of the unforgiving bureaucracy that greets vulnerable asylum seekers in modern-day Europe. Humane and sincere, it's proof of cinema's power to tell stories that matter, with beauty and heart.

Leads: Sherwan Haji, Sakari Kuosmanen, Janne Hyytiäinen, Ilkka Koivula, Nuppu Koivu

Director: Aki Kaurismäki Rating: PG

Genre: Black Comedy Run Time: 100 minutes

Languages: Finnish, English, Arabic (sub-titles)
